

NEWS FROM DALLAS

Mr. and Mrs. G. Cohen announce the engagement of their daughter, Rose, to Hyman Watelsky.

Miss Esther Epstein has gone to San Jose and Kansas City, Mo., to spend her vacation.

Mr. Leon Lawrence of Ranger, Texas, spent the Fourth with his folks at 1834 Gray street. He is also going to visit relatives in Kansas City and thence to New York where he will buy goods for the fall season.

Mrs. Mary Laurence and daughter, Jeannette, have left for Kansas City and other parts where they will spend the summer visiting relatives and friends.

The T. I. Girls met at the home of Miss Mary Friedman, 2605 Highland street, Wednesday night, July 9. Discussions of the box party was withdrawn and a Jewish drama will be given instead. The date and name of the play to be announced later. This club is progressing rapidly and a membership campaign is still open. After the meeting a social program was carried out with Mrs. J. A. Hayman of Waco, as guest of honor, with several vocal and piano selections. Dainty refreshments and dancing were enjoyed. Next meeting to be held with Miss Gertrude Gans.

Funeral service for Mrs. Esther Liddle Brin, 65 years old, who died at her home in Brownwood, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brin, 2815 Forest avenue, at 11 o'clock Thursday. Dr. William H. Greenberg officiating. Burial was in Emanuel cemetery. Mrs. Brin is survived by her husband, Samuel Brin, and three daughters, Mrs. Isaac Lear of New York, Mrs. Arnold Englander of Bonham and Miss Hattie Brin of Brownwood. The family lived in Dallas many years ago.
